

My husband and I are opposed to permitting consumer banks to be exepmted from Indiana's "NO CALL" law. We do not do our laundry in the bank, so the bank should not do its daily business in my home. Unsolicited sales calls are an invasion of our privacy.